

FLIGHT TRAINING

Kitfox Specific Type Training

Kitfox specific type training – the following flight schools specialize in Kitfox specific flight training. From transition training to mountain / canyon flying, they can help with your Kitfox proficiency.

- Emphasizing the lost art of seat of the pants flying
- Returning to the low and slow, stick and rudder skills of the past
- Putting the fun back into flight training with your Kitfox

All flight training is scheduled by you with the independent flight school. Please visit their websites for more information.
